Based on the testimony at trial, Summit's 12/5/05 invoice was not accurate. Please send me an accurate statement indicating the exact amount that Mr. Morelli allegedly owes Summit.

Please advice when we can expect the revised summary of the basis for Summit's claim again Long Island Lady that we requested last week.

Peter:

I did respond to your counteroffer last Friday. It was refused.

I asked you for the bill from Summit to facilitate further settlement discussions. Are you now saying that Summit has refused to produce what it considers to be an accurate bill for the services it has provided to Long Island Lady? Are you also saying that you refuse to present Summit with a settlement offer that only addresses Summit's bill?

Cheryl

Your client has not responded to our counter offer. Summit North Marina will not settle its claim independent of a global settlement of all the issues and claims in this litigation. Accordingly, the ball is in your court.

I am not sure I understand your response so lets try it a different way. Will you be providing a revised bill from Summit?

Cheryl

I have asked Summit to provide me with a revised bill. I have not recieved it yet. Summit insists that it will not settle LONG ISLAND LADY's indebtteness without a satisfactory settlement of the Engine Dynamics claim. So if Mr. Morelli has categorically rejected My clients' counter-offer, we should inform the Court of this and obtain the transcript for briefing. I would suggest that the Bayard Firm get the requisite fees and costs from Mr. Morelli upfront.

I am out of town until Tuesday, March 1st.
